

The origin

Essential Xarel·lo pays tribute to the most distinctive variety of El Penedès, the essence of who we are. It brings together our passion for viticulture, which has run through our veins since 1796, and our love affair with the xarel·lo, a grape that means so much to us.

To make this espumoso, we select the freshest xarel·lo grapes that will go into this sparkling wine from our estates in Espiells and Can Rius and vineyards that we select from our winegrowers, people who, like us, have been tied to the land for decades. With this xarel·lo we showcase the value of our wine-growing heritage in El Penedès with a wine that is worthy of its origins, a wine that is sincere, honest and approachable.

Juvé & Camps Essential Xarel·lo

Essential Xarel·lo is the beginning of a love story with the grape variety that most characterises El Penedès. A song performed by a single voice that's both vibrant and silky. Carefree and chic, this wine is an excellent way of honouring our roots.

The wine

The xarel·lo grapes are fermented in stainless steel vats. After malolactic fermentation, they are subject to a coupage in search of the base wines that best express the freshness and liveliness that we always pursue in this sparkling wine.

Balance and elegance, as always, are key. After the second fermentation in the bottle, it is time for the ageing process to ensure the refreshing fullness that showcases the very best of the fruit.

To achieve this, at least twenty-four months of rest, silence and peace and quiet in our cellars are required. Then it's time to uncork a bottle and turn an informal occasion into an unforgettable one.

Aromas and flavours

Its fine, seemingly endless bubbles form a cascade of wild aromas, of fennel, rosemary and thyme, taking you through a forest full of suggestions of white fruit and toasted bread to add brush strokes of colour to this Mediterranean palette. Creamy and gentle, lively and restless in the mouth, this is a fresh, seductively balanced and charmingly simple wine.

The Essential Xarel·lo experience

An excellent evening and party drink, Essential Xarel·lo is also a chic complement to an informal get-together, a weekend breakfast or a picnic by the beach as the sun begins to set. Pair it with a Scottish salmon poke bowl, a roast beef brioche with apple or basmati rice with seasonal vegetables and raisins.
