Juvé & Camps continues to champion Gran Reserva cavas with Singular, a new 100% Xarel·lo

- Juvé & Camps reveals the singular personality of Xarel·lo and its potential for long ageing in this organic Gran Reserva Brut Nature cava.
- The release of Singular expands the house's range of prestigious varietal cavas currently comprised of Milesimé, Milesimé Rosé, and Blanc de Noirs.

Sant Sadurní d'Anoia, November 2020 – Singular is the new cava by Juvé & Camps, a sophisticated, seductive, organic Gran Reserva Brut Nature – attributes that define the house.

Singular originates in the vineyards of Espiells and Can Rius, where the grapes are cultivated 100% organically in loamy calcareous clay soils. After ageing an average of 36 months in the bottle, Singular embodies the full potential of the Xarel·lo grape, from its most authentic varietal character to the finest expression of age-imparted nuances. Singular celebrates everything this indigenous Penedès grape has to offer, and the cava will continue to improve with age.

This new addition to the family consolidates Juvé & Camps's commitment to well-aged, varietal cavas that bring out the full characteristics, aromas, and flavours of their varieties. These cavas are endlessly surprising, as each vintage reflects the influence of the year's climate conditions. Now Singular joins Milesimé, Milesimé Rosé, and Blanc de Noirs in this range of wonderfully food-friendly cavas.

Singular has a pale-yellow colour and persistent effervescence with tiny, delicate bubbles that form a lovely ring on the surface. The nose offers aromas of white fruit and fennel – a characteristic varietal nuance of Xarel·lo – joined by notes of brioche and pastry, imparted by long bottle ageing, as it opens up in the glass. Creamy on the palate, with well-integrated carbonation and a smooth, silky texture. Long, persistent, and richly aromatic.

This food-friendly sparkling wine combines perfectly with marmitako (tuna and potato stew) and other tuna, bonito (white tuna), or salmon dishes. A good match for poultry casseroles and stews in general, rice dishes, and vegetarian fare.

Singular is the latest 100% Xarel·lo cava by Juvé & Camps, joining other Xarel·los like the reserva cava Essential and the Cava de Paraje Calificado La Capella.
